07.09.2026 Mestia – Ushguli

Breakfast in the hotel. Flight to Mestia on your own.

Mestia - Lost among the snowy ridges of the Caucasus, Mestia is the heart of Svaneti, a rugged and distinctive region of Georgia where ancient traditions are carefully passed down from generation to generation. This small village, surrounded by majestic mountains, feels like a legend brought to life. The austere Svan towers, standing for centuries, bear witness to a past filled with fierce raids, clan wars, and the heroic resistance of the highlanders.

Reaching Mestia is an adventure. The winding road takes travelers through narrow gorges, past rushing mountain rivers and towering cliffs that leave you breathless. As you ascend higher into the mountains, the scenery becomes even more striking - bizarre peaks, lush green rock formations, and steep, snow-covered slopes. The journey demands time and effort, but the road, lined with breathtaking views, becomes an unforgettable part of the experience. All that remains is to choose the path that will lead you to this extraordinary land.

Ushguli - Finally, those looking to experience the unique atmosphere of Svaneti should visit the ancient village of Ushguli. Located 46 kilometers from Mestia, it holds the title of the highest permanently inhabited village in Europe. Among the dozens of ancient Svan towers that once protected local families, visitors can truly sense the passage of time and the enduring spirit of the region.

Mestia is a land where age-old traditions and the untouched beauty of nature merge into one. Visitors have the chance to immerse themselves in the history of the Georgian highlands, take in mesmerizing mountain panoramas, and, of course, savor the unique flavors of local cuisine.

07.09.2026 Vashlovani National Park

Breakfast in the hotel.

Meet your guide in hotel reception and transfer to Vashlovani National Park

Full-day journey to Vashlovani National Park, a breathtaking desert oasis in eastern Georgia. Known for its arid landscapes, unique biodiversity, and rugged cliffs, Vashlovani offers an otherworldly experience in one of Georgia's most remote natural settings.

As you travel from Kachreti, you'll witness the scenery shift from lush hills to stark plains and rocky formations. Highlights include Pantishara Gorge, often called Georgia's "Grand Canyon," where ancient rock layers reveal millions of years of geological history. You'll also visit panoramic viewpoints over the Alazani Valley, contrasting lush riverbanks with dry desert terrain.

The park hosts rare wildlife, such as goitered gazelles, lynxes, and various bird species, including eagles and vultures. Unique flora like wild pistachio trees and drought-resistant shrubs thrive here, and in spring, the desert bursts briefly into color with wildflowers.

As the day concludes, you'll return to Kachreti with unforgettable memories of Georgia's striking desert landscapes. For nature lovers, adventurers, and those seeking solitude, Vashlovani National Park promises a day filled with wonder and the raw beauty of Georgia's wilderness.

07.09.2026 David Gareja Monastery

Breakfast in the hotel.

Meet your guide in hotel reception and transfer to David Gareja Monastery.

Immerse yourself in Georgian history and culture on a guided day trip from Kachreti. Visit the impressive David Gareja Monastery and Rainbow Mountains. Explore the mountainous region and visit a stunning salt lake.

The first place where you can stop is at a salty lake, where you have an outstanding possibility to take some nice pictures.

After the lake, we continue driving through Udabno Village, which translated as a desert. The area where you will be traveling is the only semidesert Georgia has, and it's more than amazing to see how diverse Georgian nature is.

You will start walking toward the famous Rainbow Mountains at the end of the drive. The most impressive feature of the landscape is the mineral-rich sedimentary rock, which looks like it's been painted with brightly colored stripes.

It's possible to hike through the Rainbow Mountains, which astonish visitors with their colors. You will walk through the Rainbow Mountains, take many mesmerizing pictures, and prepare for the David Gareji Lavra historical tour.

David Gareji Monastery Complex is one of the most spiritual places in the country. You will hear the stories of the monastery, do a bit of hiking and see a Georgian soldier at the border of Georgia and Azerbaijan. It's believed that St. David chose this isolated location because he wanted his Disciples to lead a life of holiness independent from the rest of society.

After David Gareji Lavra, you will return to Kachreti.
